The statement is made that the fish "Tanks" or armored motor that did such fearful execution to Germans were made from "cater-r" spraying machines manufactured in Peoria, Ill., and covered with or after being shipped to Europe, machines guns installed to do the "aying." They were run in where Germans were massed for infan-tacks and streams of lead turned in three directions.

The bread strike at Maysville has out. Last week the master bakon a plea of losing money, raised price of bread to six cents per and so loud was the protest ist it that many grocers put in innate bread at five cents, and local bakers' sales fell off so much they decided to put it back to five beginning Monday.

The Kentucky Division, United Fighters of the Confederacy, met Lexington yesterday and is still in al convention. About 200 delegates from all parts of the State are ding. Among the speakers will

NOT ALWAYS.

"Money talks, my dear."
"Not always, does it? Isn't there a thing as a gold reserve?"

CONTRARIES MEETING.

"Great Scott, what a flat taste this has!"
"Suppose it has, you needn't be so about it."

EXPERIENCED.

"You have never been in New York, have you?"

RARE ARABIAN HORSES
FEATURE OF SPECTACLEDERRISH, The Blooded Animal Imported By Ringling Bros., to Take Part in "Cinderella."

When the Ringling Brothers' stage managers were holding the initial rehearsals of the mammoth fairyland production, "Cinderella," they sent for the finest horses in all the circus stables. But, splendid as were these thoroughbreds, not one could be found that was thought to be entirely suitable for the prince of the tale who, as everyone knows, takes "Cinderella" to wed.

There were hundreds of steeds admirably suited to the requirements of the ladies and gentlemen of the royal train but it was argued that the princes' horse should be the most striking ever seen in a spectacle. Thereupon word was cabled to the Ringling Brothers' European representatives to secure the finest Arabian steed that money could buy. In reply came the horse Derrish. Accompanying the beautiful animal was his pedigree written in Arabic. Translated, it reads:

"In the name of God, the merciful!
The cause of the present writing is that we witness that the white horse, Derrish of Mahomet Bey, is the first breed of Nedjee horses, whose mother is the white mare, Hadha the famous, and whose father is the bay horse Dahrouge of the horses of the tribe Benihalel. We testify on our conscience and fortune that he is the breed concerning which the prophet said: "The true runners when they run strike fire; they grant prosperity until the day of judgment. We testify what is known and God knows we are true witnesses." Six signatures verify this pedigree.

When the Ringling Brothers exhibit here Derrish will be seen twice.
First on the vast stage on which the fairyland spectacle is produced, and again during the progress of the high-school and menage horse numbers.
The riding acts will embrace more than fifty different horses, but the spectator will probably have no difficulty in locating Derrish, for he is the most superb animal of them all. The circus will be in Hopkinsville, Saturday, Sept. 30.

NOT WANTED.

Old Party—Remember, Mabel, if you marry me with all my money, you can have everything your heart longs for.

Young Party—Well, the only thing my heart longs for at present is some other man to marry besides you.

Nice Job.

"What line did you say you were in?"

"I manufacture a face powder that can't be kissed off."

"Who has charge of your proving grounds?"

OUTTALKED.

"What became of your parrot? He was such a good talker."

"Well, we bought a graphophone that was a better talker. The parrot tried to emulate it, but couldn't keep up the pace. So the poor bird pined away and died."

MINOR JOYS OF THE CAMPAIGN.

Knicker—Why do you always go to hear the spellbinders?

Bocker—Since my boy went to college I like to hear somebody call

THE BALKY MACHINE.

"Do you want me to watch your automobile?" asked the boy.

"Yes," replied Mr. Chuggins.
"And if it tries to start up and run away, don't stop it. Holler for me and I'll take a chance on overtaking it and getting the first ride I've had for three or four hours."
